GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The latest move made by President Wall, of the Charleston Racing Association, to elevate the sport there was to create a Board of Stewards. It was formed for the purpose of assisting the judges to weed out guilty parties who have been manipulating in several of the races there. The Board of Stewards consists of Associate Judge G. B. McGehee, who will act as the presiding officer; J. H. Marshall, a newspaper man connected with a local paper, and President "Tobe" Wall. The naming of G. B. McGehee for the presiding stewardship will cause a vacancy in the judges' stand, which will be filled by Col. R. W. Johnson, an able lawyer from Virginia. The board will take cognizance of all matters pertaining to racing there.

Turney Brothers will ship their string to Churchill Downs, Louisville, in a few days. They have fifteen in training this year, of which they consider Waswift the best. In fact, they believe that he is the greatest horse they have ever owned. The two-year-olds in the string are:

Chestnut filly, by Candlemas—Nell Swift.
Bay filly, by Candemas—Truant.
Bay filly, by Lamplighter—Landlady.
Bay filly, by Bermuda—Nannie D.
Bay filly, by Buck Massie—Dahlia.
Bay colt, by Wakekus—Feronica.
Chestnut colt, by Wakekus—Miss Marcum.

Commenting upon the arrival in England of Nasturtium, the Sporting Life says: "It is an open secret that Nasturtium, which cost Mr. Whitney £10,000, has been brought over to this country specially to win the Derby, and, accordingly, the most elaborate arrangements were made on the Minnehaha to insure his safety on the voyage. The colt was given into the personal charge of Mr. H. Wood, the horse foreman of the Atlantic Transport Line, who had specially constructed on the steamer two large and commodious stables, one for Nasturtium and the other for the Peg Woffington colt. Each of the stables was seventeen feet, six inches in length by eight feet in width, and thickly padded from top to bottom. All the beams were similarly treated, and a thermometer was placed in each stable, so that the temperature could be taken every hour. Between the stables was placed a couple of berths, with a porthole looking into each, in order that the two attendants might always have the colts under observation. The stables were whitewashed and disinfected twice a day, and many other precautions were taken to insure the horses being landed in perfect health. The voyage across was extremely rough, but notwithstanding this disadvantage, neither animal showed the slightest sign of fatigue and both briskly walked about their boxes every day. They have arrived in the Thames in quite as sound condition as when they left New York."

There is much interest among turfmen in the two-year-olds to be developed by John E. Madden this year, chiefly because he turned out such a fine string last season in Blue Girl, Yankee, Heno, Flywheel and others. Madden has a bunch of forty youngsters which are wintering at Churchill Downs and they have been pronounced a fine lot by experts. Most of them are by his stallion, Mirthful, out of mares that have all thrown winners. It is a difficult matter to get a line on Madden's doings and it is said that even his stable boys and rubbers never know the name of a horse, until he is started, except by the number of his stall. Madden's two-year-olds are all well developed and finely conformed. Several of them have already done quarters in better than 25 seconds. All of them will be shipped east as soon as they are ready to race which will be about May 1.

The indications now are that little Lyne will not ride in the Schorr colors the coming season. It is a sure thing that he will not if it is Mr. Schorr's idea to have the Lexington lad figure in the role of understudy to J. Woods, the present stable jockey.

As a matter of fact, the proprietor of Larchmont Stud is desirous of having his son ride in the east, and for that reason he will probably have him go with Captain S. S. Brown, as the coal magnate has made overtures.

Overton H. Chenault, of Spendthrift Stud, Kentucky, has bought of W. T. Muir six highly bred two-year-old fillies, which composed the Muir string at the Kentucky Association track. The youngsters have shown well, but Mr. Muir will probably retire from the running turf to engage in the trotting horse business, and on that account sold them. The price is said to have been a long one. Following is a list of the youngsters:

Chestnut colt, by Russell—Anna Garth, by Springbok.

Bay filly, by Russell—Clare Duncan, by Aretino.
Bay filly, by Hermence—Blitzen's Sister, by Blazes.
Chestnut filly, by Spendthrift—Gelida, by King Alfonso.

Bay filly, by King Eric—Virgilina, by Virgil.

The last named filly is a full sister to Isabinda, that was never unplaced in thirty-two starts in 1899.

Mr. Muir campaigned runners for the first time last season. He had a stable of five two-year-olds which included Sweet Billie, that he sold for $2,000; Coacoa sold for $1,000. His stable winnings amounted to about $2,500, so that it is not from want of success that he is retiring.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

An eastern exchange says that a number of residences are being erected at Spheershead Bay for horsemen and other followers of the turf. The latest builders are Tod Sloan, J. A. Joyner and James Villepigue. Sloan's cottage is very pretty and is fashioned after some of those at the celebrated Mediterranean resort, Monte Carlo.

The large colony of American Derby candidates in winter quarters at Memphis, Tenn., was increased several days ago by the arrival of a quintet of P. Dunne's candidates. Henry Zitt, Hargis, Memnon, Arian and J. V. Kirby were the additions, and they will be prepared there for their coming turf campaign.

Judge Keogh of White Plains, sitting in Brooklyn January 23, decided to grant the motion made on behalf of Mrs. W. H. Clark to have the recent sale of the Empire City track to Frank Farrell for $218,000 set aside on the ground that the price offered was too low. He will issue an order, for the resale of the track, at once.

John Dillon, assistant secretary of the Latonia track, is making the rounds of the owners at Montgomery Park, Memphis, Tenn., in the interest of Latonia's stake events, entries to which close February 1. He anticipates the most successful season of racing the west has ever seen.

The famous race mare Imp has been sent to the Willamette stud of J. N. Ewing, near Lexington, Ky., and bred to Top Gallant, sire of Algol, Sidney Lucas and other great ones. She is in fine condition, the rest at the Chillicothe farm having done her much good.

Jockey Otis, who several weeks ago at New Orleans was suspended for the remainder of the meeting, has been given a conditional reinstatement. This means that he will be permitted to ride for his contract employer, James Arthur only.

Felix Carr, acting for Barney Schrieber, for whom he is handling a small string at the Fair Grounds, New Orleans, sold to Tony Licalzi the two-year-old Service—Miss Howard filly Wilton for $800.

L. V. Bell intends to make a jumper of Herculean, now racing on the coast, and will send him to Saratoga to be schooled after the season there.

President John Condon and Secretary Nathanson of the Harlem Jockey Club have arrived at San Francisco.

Barney Schrieber has a colt by Sain—Derfargilla that he thinks will win the Western Produce Stakes.

Winner—B. g, by Bassettlaw—Miss Maxim.
Went to post at 2:42. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Legal Maxim showed the way throughout and was the best. He showed unexpected staying qualities. Bragg, off badly, closed a big gap. He was poorly handled. Tyranus tired at the end. Harry Thatcher quit badly in the last quarter. Burdock runs to better advantage in cuppy going. Illowaho is a good looker.

Winner—B. g, by Wagner—Miss Hight.
Went to post at 3:09. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Matt Hogan was cleverly handled. Jackson waited with him until the stretch, where he called upon him and he responded with alacrity. He was much the best. Captivate showed fine form and evidently runs best in mud. Meehanus quit badly in the stretch. This race should be thrown out. It was rumored he had run away in the morning. He was unfit to start, as the race showed. He outclasses this kind. Fullen looked unfit and ran like it.

Scratched—30190 Fitzkanet, 107.

Winner—Br. c, by Sir Modred—Queen Bess.
Went to post at 3:31. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Kenilworth led under a stiff pull from the start. He outclassed his field. Colonial Girl showed improved speed and stamina. Greyfeld ran a steady race throughout, but lacked speed. He is in good form. Floronso was not quite good enough at the weights. Divina ran as if short. She is a good filly and should go well when placed properly.

Kenilworth, show, 2 to 5. Colonial Girl, show, 6 to 5. Greyfeld, show, 1 to 4. Floronso, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—B. g, by Lord Clifden—Tenny B.
Went to post at 3:59. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Pat Morrissey was in great form, winning with a brilliant flight of speed. He was much the best. Hungarian ran a clever race and is strictly a mudder. Siddons, badly outrun and under a drive almost throughout, closed with a rush. Mission ran well. Merops, nearly left at the post, appeared to be a contender at the stretch turn, but the effort to get up tired him. He will bear watching. Cromwell showed speed, but tired badly.

Winner—Ch. c, by Matt Byrnes—Barmad. Went to post at 4:25. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won handily; second the same. Bard Burns was lucky and under a clever ride ran a good race. He liked the sticky going and stayed well. Formero, off badly, closed a big gap and was probably the best. Mountebank was in the deep going throughout. He was weakly ridden at the end. Rose of Hilo tired in the going. Scallywag showed a brilliant burst of speed, but quit badly when pinched. He belongs among a cheaper lot. Reina de Cuba tired to almost a walk in the stretch. Dunblane, off badly, sulked and bolted in the stretch under punishment.

The same happened to Presgrave. Barney F. ran poorly and can do much better. Onomastus looked high in flesh and can do better when fit.
